

Nightcrawler
Fronteiri and Lou

[Lou is sitting in the interrogation room when Detective Fronteiri enters]

Fronteiri: [Sits and looks over papers] You understand that you've been read your rights and you're here voluntarily?

Lou: That's right, yes.

Fronteiri: And this is being recorded and filmed?

Lou: Yes from the camera up there, yes. Wide angle.

Fronteiri: Would you tell me how it is you were at the Chinatown Express tonight and called in the 911?

Lou: Of course. It began earlier in the day. I was watering my plant, I looked out my window at my apartment, the one you visited, and I saw a dark colored car with two men parked across the street. I didn't think much about it, otherwise I would have reported it then. We began our night, my... employee and myself. And around approximately 12:38 I looked in the rear view mirror and saw that we were being followed by what looked to be the same men in the same car. I made an evasive maneuver, circled back and tailed them to the restaurant, at which time I witnessed them go inside and I recognized them as the same men from the home invasion.

Fronteiri: You told me you didn't see the men, that you didn't get a good look at them.

Lou: Well it all came back to me when I saw them going in. Their shapes and their movements. Then I saw that one of them had a gun under his shirt and so of course I immediately got my phone and I called 911.

Fronteiri: That's your story?

Lou: That's what happened. That's why I'm here talking to you. I think that the men saw my footage and they tracked me down.

Fronteiri: Would you like to know what I think?

Lou: Yes, please.

Fronteiri: I think you withheld information. I think you saw the two men at the murder house in Granada Hills and you saw the car and you sat on it to get something that you could film. What do you think about that?

Lou: I think that would be a very unprofessional for me to do that in my business.

Fronteiri: It would be murder.

Lou: I could understand why you're looking into it but I didn't do anything like that, nothing that could be considered wrong.

Fronteiri: You don't fool me for a minute.

Lou: I'm glad.

Fronteiri: I think everything you've said is a lie.

Lou: I wish my partner was here to back up what happened.

Fronteiri: You left your dead partner.

Lou: Well the ambulances had arrived. They're trained professionals.

Fronteiri: You seem real broken up about it.

Lou: He died doing what he loved.

Fronteiri: You filmed him dying.

Lou: That's what I do, it's my job. I like to say if you're seeing me you're having the worst day of your life.
